EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Dennis Daley on March 2, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

The Claims:

In claim 17, delete "about 5 to about 30 wt% active oxygen compound;".

Cancel claims 75-78.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Note that, Applicant's amendment, Applicant's arguments, and the Examiner's Amendment are sufficient to place the instant claims in condition for allowance.

Of the references of record, the most pertinent are US 2003/019403, Tarara et al (US 6,638,902), and Scialla et al (US 5,905,065). Note that, Applicant has provided a statement of common ownership which is sufficient to overcome the prior art rejections of the instant claims over US 2003/019403 and Tarara et al (6,638,902).

Scialla et al teach compositions comprising from 0.01% to 10% by weight of the total composition of salicylic acid or derivatives thereof. See Abstract. Additionally, the compositions may contain from 0.1% to 155 by weight of active oxygen in the compositions. See column 9, lines 30-45. However, Scialla et al do not teach a method of cleaning using a composition containing the requisite amount of active oxygen as recited by the instant claims.

None of the references of record, alone or in combination, teach or suggest a method of cleaning carpet or upholstery using the a composition containing the requisite components of the composition in the specific proportions as recited by the instant claims. Accordingly, since the prior art fails to teach or suggest such a method using the specific composition as recited by the instant claims, the instant claims are deemed allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
